

We individuals have the right to NOT have our homes invaded by telemarketers. It is our home, our privacy, our refuge after a stressful day at work and it is unfair to us, THE CITIZENS, to be forced to endure annoying phone calls just so business can find more ways to advertize their business and make sales.